- Officers investigated a missing 26-year-old Penn State graduate student. It was determined that the student went back to China.
- Officers handled 4 "Safe 2 Say Something" tips. Police were consulted on all anonymous tips and only one tip involved minor assistance from the police department.

Safe 2 Say Something is a youth violence prevention program run by the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General. The program teaches youth and adults how recognize warning signs and signals from an individual who may be a threat to themselves or others. Individuals can anonymously report their observations to the crisis center by phone, email, Online or app. The crisis center forwards the tip to the appropriate school district and law enforcement entity.

Police and school officials collaborate to evaluate the information and determine the best course of action to address the tip.

- There were six school bus red light violations during the month. Drivers convicted of violating school bus stopping law will:
 - o Receive a $250 fine (plus court costs) totaling $397.50
