

- You are not alone... Being a victim of crime can be very hard. You might not be able to focus or remember things. This is all normal for someone who has been a victim of crime.
- There are victim advocates that can provide free services to you. They are available to answer your questions and provide supportive counseling.
 - To find an organization in your county go to www.pcv.pccd.pa.gov or scan the QR code below and select “Find Help in Your County.”
- As a victim of crime, you have rights. Go to www.pcv.pccd.pa.gov or scan the QR code below to see your rights throughout the criminal justice process, including information on how to exercise additional rights if someone is arrested and/or convicted, and learn how to access immediate resources, such as shelter and protection orders, financial assistance and counseling.
- If you are the victim of domestic violence, you have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an order for protection from domestic abuse pursuant to the Protection From Abuse Act (23 Pa.C.S. Ch. 61), which could include the following:
 - An order restraining the abuser from further acts of abuse; An order directing the abuser to leave your household; An order preventing the abuser from entering your residence, school, business or place of employment; An order awarding you or the other parent temporary custody of or temporary visitation with your child or children; An order directing the abuser to pay support to you and the minor children if the abuser has a legal obligation to do so.
- If you are the victim of sexual violence or intimidation, you have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting Sexual Violence Protection Order (SVPO) pursuant to the Protection of Victims of Sexual Assault or Intimidation Act (42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 62A).

Victims Compensation Assistance Program Short Form

Please read the following before completing this form.

You may be eligible for compensation if:

- The crime occurred in Pennsylvania.
- The crime was reported to the proper authorities within 3 days.
- You cooperate with law enforcement authorities investigating the crime, the courts, and the Victims Compensation Assistance Program in processing the claim (some exceptions apply).
- Deadlines for filing may apply. Please visit www.pcv.pccd.pa.gov or call 1-800-233-2339 for additional information on filing requirements.
- Minimum loss requirements may apply. Please visit www.pcv.pccd.pa.gov or call 1-800-233-2339 for additional information on filing requirements.

You may be awarded compensation for:

Medical Expenses
Counseling Expenses
Loss of Earnings
Loss of Support
Relocation Expenses
Funeral Expenses
Crime Scene Cleanup

Transportation Expenses
Childcare
Home Healthcare Expenses
Stolen Cash (if your main source of income is Social Security Retirement, Disability
Income, Supplemental Income, Survivor
Benefits, Retirement/Pension(s), Disability, or Court Ordered Child/Spousal Support)

An overall maximum award shall not exceed $35,000; however, certain benefits, such as counseling and crime-scene cleanup, may be paid over and above the maximum. Monetary limits apply to most benefits.

The Program does not cover:

- Pain and suffering.
- Stolen or damaged property (except replacement of stolen or damaged medical equipment).

A claim may be determined ineligible or an award may be reduced if the conduct of the victim contributed to the injury.

Victims Compensation Assistance Program Short Form

Your cooperation with the Program and the submission of complete and accurate information will assist us in processing your claim in a timely manner.

IMPORTANT NOTE: You do not have to wait until the trial is over or all of your bills are received to file a claim. You may file a claim if there is no known offender or if an arrest has not been made.

General instructions for submitting your claim:

- Please print clearly.
- Complete only those sections that apply to your claim.
- Provide an accurate mailing address, a safe phone number or email address where you can be reached during the day.
- Provide as many of the requested documents as you can when filing your claim. You may submit your claim even if you do not have all the required documents. The Program may request additional information once the claim is received.
- Sign the Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement and Authorization to Obtain Information and the HIPPA Authorization and Release Agreement (if applicable) sections on the back of the claim form.
- If you would like assistance in filing your claim you may contact the Victim Service Program listed on the back of this form. If no agency is listed, you may contact the Victims Compensation Assistance Program at (800) 233-2339 for assistance.

Please Note: It is important that you inform the Program if you change your mailing address, phone number or email address. To process your claim, we must be able to contact you.

The Victims Compensation Assistance Program is the payer of last resort. This means your award will be reduced by the monies you receive from any other source as a result of the crime, such as insurance, restitution, and civil suit settlements, including monies received for pain and suffering.

We will make every effort to process your claim as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Cut along this line and maintain this portion for your records. $

Acknowledgement & Reimbursement Agreements and Authorization to Obtain Information

The Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement and Authorization to Obtain Information must be signed before a claim can be verified and processed for payment.

Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement: The decision to approve my claim is that of the Program. I may object to all or part of the Program’s decision in writing within 30 days from the date of the decision. I must prove the exact amount of my losses before the Program will consider awarding compensation from the Crime Victims Compensation Fund. I may later file for reimbursement of any additional expenses incurred relating to the crime. My claim may be denied if I do not cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies, the courts, and the Program, or maintain a valid address with the Program. Making a false claim would be a criminal offense under 18 P.S. § 11.1303 of the Crime Victims Act. Making a false statement in this claim form with the intent to mislead the Program would be a criminal offense under 18 Pa. C.S. § 4904, Unsworn Falsification. Making a false statement which the Program relies upon to award compensation is a criminal offense under 18 Pa.C.S. § 3922, Theft by Deception.

I understand that the Crime Victims Compensation Fund is the payor of last resort. I specifically agree to inform the Program of and repay to the Commonwealth any funds that I may receive from any other source that has not already been considered, as a result of the crime and to the extent of the award. That is, I agree to repay any funds that I receive from the offender or any other person or source, which compensates me for the injury I suffered, including proceeds from an insurance policy, as well as any award or settlement from a civil law suit, which stems from the crime that is the basis for this claim. I further agree that if the claim is at any time determined to be in error, false or fraudulent, I will refund the Program all sums of money paid by the Program.

Authorization to Obtain Information: I hereby authorize any funeral director or other person who rendered related services, any employer of the victim or claimant, any police or government agency, including state or federal taxing authorities, any insurance company, or any organization having relevant knowledge to furnish to the Office of Victims’ Services, Victims Compensation Assistance Program, any and all information in their possession with respect to the crime that is the basis for this claim

PA SAVIN is an automated service that lets you track the custody status of offenders in jail or prison over the phone or internet. You can also register to be notified by phone, email and/or text message if the custody status of an offender changes.

Write down the following information, remove this panel, and keep in a safe place:

Offender name

Offender number

Your four-digit PIN

- If you do not answer a notification call, PA SAVIN will leave a message and will continue calling back until you enter your PIN or until up to 72 hours have passed. You may get a call from PA SAVIN in the middle of the night.
- Do not register a phone number that rings to a switchboard.
- PA SAVIN is confidential.
- You can register multiple phone numbers and email addresses for notifications.
- If you forget your PIN, call the toll-free number (1-866-972-7284) and press zero for a SAVIN service representative.
- SAVIN service representatives are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week to assist you.

Search for "VINEmobile" where you get your apps.

REGISTRATION

If the offender is in custody, you can register to receive PA SAVIN notifications.

If you register a phone number, you must create a four-digit personal identification number (PIN) that you will need when you receive notifications. Make sure your PIN is easy to remember. Write it down and keep it in a safe place.

Email registrations do not require a PIN.

NOTIFICATION

You will be notified about events such as release, transfer, escape, or death.

When PA SAVIN calls, listen to the message, then enter your PIN followed by the pound (#) key when asked. Entering the PIN confirms the call was received and will stop the service from calling you until there is another change in custody status.

No PIN is required when you receive email and text message notifications. You will receive one email or text message when there is a change in custody status.
