Ferguson Township welcomes new Director of Planning and Zoning

Ray Stolas, Jr., AICP, will join Ferguson Township as Director of Planning and Zoning on August 31. A Penn State graduate who majored in geography while he was living in the Centre Region, Stolas is returning to the area from Bradford County, where he served as planning director. He's excited to be coming back to the Centre Region to work. He welcomes the opportunity to serve Ferguson Township by managing issues relevant to development, transportation, and parks. Ferguson Township is pleased to present the 2014 CAFR

The Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) for the calendar year ended December 31, 2014, is an audit of Ferguson Township's financial records. Independent auditors prepare the CAFR along with the Township's Finance Director. The auditors found that the Township's overall financial position improved during the past year, considering total fund balances, capital investment, long-term debt, net revenues, and cash flow. Public Works to fine grade site of stormwater improvement project at Haymarket Park

During the week of August 17, Ferguson Township Public Works crews anticipate fine grading the site of a stormwater improvement project at Haymarket Park. The contractor for The Landings Planned Residential Development, Johnson Farm Associates, has been excavating this portion of Haymarket Park adjacent to Blue Course Drive. This project is being completed to improve stormwater storage, control and conveyance, and is part of the overall stormwater management that includes the Haymarket Regional Stormwater Basin just east of the Young Scholars Charter School. Around the Township: Butterfly Garden at Tudek Park

Wings in the Park at Tom Tudek Memorial Park is sponsored annually in July by Penn State Extension Master Gardeners and partner organizations. Accentuating the positives about pollinators--bees, birds and butterflies--the event draws its inspiration from its co-founder Dr. Robert Snetsinger, aka "Butterfly Bob." Dr. Snetsinger and the Penn State Master Gardeners developed the butterfly garden at Tudek Park eight years ago in cooperation with partners of the park. Children and their families who attend Wings in the Park learn how they can save pollinators by providing habitats for them in their own gardens. Read more...
