Celebrating a wonderful year of community relations by the Ferguson Township Police Department

Ferguson Township Police enjoy opportunities to get to know our residents and be where you can see us. Pictured are the many ways we served our larger community during 2016: remembering fallen officers at the law enforcement memorial ceremony; promoting bike safety at our Bike Rodeo and at the Buddy Walk; carrying the torch for Special Olympics; providing extra patrols and reaching out to families on Trick or Treat night; accepting prescription drugs for drop-off year-round, and collecting for Toys For Tots and the State College Food Bank.
