[Trick or Treat Night
in Ferguson](#)

We've started a new feature under the Public Works Department Street Trees page on our website. Large Trees of Ferguson Township is a photo tour of impressive privately owned trees. We are proud of these trees that are beautifying our Township. Each month our Arborist Lance King will highlight one of them; the first is this White Oak on Farmstead Lane that dates back to the signing of the U.S. Constitution. Learn more at this new page, where you'll find clickable links to each tree.

Follow our Community Calendar

We hope you'll follow and submit events for our Community Calendar. We'll promote them on our website and via Twitter. Our Community Calendar features events taking place in Ferguson Township or of general interest to residents. This month we highlight: October 11: 3rd in a series of Town Halls on the Heroin and Opioid Crisis; October 13: League of Women Voters Candidates Night; October 15: Coffee & Conversation with Ferguson Township; October 29: Community Halloween Party at Baileyville Grange Community Hall, and October 31: Trick or Treat Night in Ferguson Township.
